

Call for Student Artists

We want to display your art!

We are seeking current and former AP® Studio Art students who are still in high school to submit an original piece of artwork that relates to our theme of “challenging all students to own their future.” Selected artwork will be prominently displayed in the College Board office.

Theme: “Challenging all students to own their future.”

Award: $500 and your work displayed at the College Board office in NYC

Deadline for submission: Jan. 9, 2015
